

Agreement “visiting the Geological Museum”

Introduction

Considering the governance role of Geological survey of Iran in conducting geological - knowledge and exploration and the need to preserve specialized documentation in the form of establishment museums and Park Museum, these specialized services have been created. The scope of this service includes visits to specialized earth science museums museum parks.

Goal

The purpose of this Agreement is to provide the high-quality service for all audiences including the general public, specialists, d investors., etc.

This mutual agreement specifies the level of regarding this service, monitoring methods, and organizational responsibilities, as appropriate.

Responsibility

Based on this agreement between the Management and Planning Organization and Geological survey of Iran, Geological survey of Iran has a legal responsibility towards the citizen requesting the service.

The Geological survey of Iran has the license to create the earth science museum services to applicants. The documentation of which is available.

Mutual obligations between the service user and Geological survey of Iran

Service user obligations

The applicant for this service is required to submit his / her request electronically to this institution, providing complete details, through the portal system.

If the applicant requests a group visit through a university or educational institution, it is mandatory to upload a written letter signed by the applicant in the service request system.

Whenever after paying the group visits fee and completion of forms and delivery them through the website, the applicant is not contacted within three working days, the applicant must contact support (the details of the service support are listed in the service details table on the website)

Obligations of the Geological Survey of Iran

The organization is required to accept the selected day and time through the website by applicant to visit the museum, and in the event of cancellation by the organization, it must notify the applicant two days in advance.

The organization is required to make the necessary arrangements for visitors to enter the organization the day before.

If the day of the reserved visit is declared an official holiday by the government, the organization is required to consider an alternative day for the applicant.

Cost and Payment

The cost of visiting the museum is 200,000 riyals per person, which must be paid through the website.

Performance period

This Agreement is valid for one year and is signed by the head of the organization.

In necessary cases, a new Agreement will be created and signed shortly after the end of this Agreement to ensure continued service provision.